SULPHUR MEETS SYSTEM'S NATURAL SULPHUR CRAVING

Desire for Nature's Purifier and Antiseptic Almost an Insatiable in Human Race.

Astonishingly Quick Cure. C. M. C. Stewart Sulphur Co., 71 Columbia St., Seattle, Gentlemen: Late in September, 1911, I received my first bottle of Sulphur, being one of about 400, who were that day given of the wonderful remedy at Mr. Stewart's home. I immediately began its use, and was simply astonished at the sudden and complete relief from pain, both from Rheumatism and from hemorrhoids, which had given me no relief for many months. Now, after five months, I can say I have had no return of pain from either source, and I feel as agile as a girl. I know of many who have had marvelous relief from the use of Sulphur.

(Signed) MRS. LAURA SMITH, 513 Twenty-fourth ave. Sulphur answers the system's natural craving for Sulphur. For so many generations Sulphur has been regarded as a purifying and healing friend of the human race that the desire for it is implanted deep in all of us. Nature has provided Sulphur as one of her chief antiseptic and cleansing elements. Sulphur in powdered form was never regarded as entirely satisfactory for medicinal use, as the powder coats the walls of the stomach and intestines, retarding rather than promoting circulation. But in liquid form (Sulphur) it passes freely into the blood, and there exerts the purifying and disease germ that causes the human family so much distress.

The Sulphur booklet (sent free upon request) to the C. M. C. Stewart Sulphur Co., 71 Columbia St., Seattle, Wash., will tell you all about it. Booklet accompanies each 50-cent and $1 bottle of Sulphur at drug stores.

BOUNDARY LINE WORK NEAR END

International Waterways Commission Cruises Down the Niagara River.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 28.—On what is probably its last trip over the great lakes for the purpose of definitely determining the international boundary line, the International Waterways Commission, appointed by the American and Dominion governments is today cruising down the Niagara river, and expects to complete the trip tomorrow in the St. Lawrence. The exact location of the boundary line has been practically agreed upon but the field work will not be completed until the end of the year and the commission will not go out of existence until six months later.

Brigadier General O. W. Ernest, U. S. A., retired, is chairman of the American section and George C. Gibbons of London, Ontario, is chairman of the Canadian section.

ANNOUNCE CHANGES IN INSULAR BUREAU

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Major Charles C. Walcott is announced by the secretary of war to succeed General Frank McIntyre as senior assistant to the chief of the bureau of insular affairs, with the rank of colonel. Captain Irving T. Hunt of the Sixth Infantry, a native of California, will succeed Major George H. Pheasant as assistant to the chief of the bureau of insular affairs. He was graduated from the military academy in 1900. He has been on a tour of duty in the Philippine Islands.

GLEASON DROPS OUT OF SIGHT

Man of Steady Habits Is Missing; Acquaintances Mystified.

boat a complete overhauling and then took his departure for parts unknown. That a yachtsman, believed to be Gleason, may have lost his life off Alameda more last week is indicated by the story related to Justice E. J. Johnson by Luther A. Smith, who today made an affidavit of lost property, preparatory to claiming a sloop yacht he found off Alameda pier on August 23. Smith has as yet been unable to find any owner for the craft. He moved the boat today to Alameda pier, where it was found. The craft's boat yard at Alameda point. The craft is also equipped with a gasoline engine. When found by Smith it was almost adrift. The yacht bore the name Independent. Smith's preliminary investigation revealed that it belonged about the pier on August 22, the day before Smith found the yacht, an unidentified man swimming near the boat. No attention was paid to the man as he did not seem to be in trouble or danger. Whether he owned the boat and was drowned while swimming, or whether he had no connection with the ownership of the sloop, is not known. It is assumed that he might have encountered the same tremendous current pouring out of Oakland harbor which prevented Neil Schmidt from landing at Alameda pier. If such was the case the swimmer might have been swept away from the boat and out in the bay to his death. Smith's affidavit of lost property is made to protect himself in the event of the rightful owner appearing. He has been looking for the rights as finder in the event the original owner is not found.

According to T. L. Wallace, where Gleason was in the habit of calling very few days for his mail, nothing has been heard of him since he left over a week. He was to have called on W. G. Wallace of 243 Athol avenue with him when leaving Alameda. Wallace had been negotiating to share a grocery transport business with the young man.

LEAVES NO WORD.

"Wallace called at the house," said W. T. Wallace, who asked if he knew where Gleason had gone. He did not know, of course, and wondered why he had not called for his mail or given instructions for its forwarding. Wallace learned from residents at the hotel where Gleason left the place, but he had not mentioned any destination.

"Gleason has always been very quiet in his habits and industrious. He owns the property next door and we think it is very queer that he should have gone away and not let us know."

The missing man has blue eyes, black hair, medium height and wore a brown suit when last seen.

MORRISON STILL MISSING. Harry R. Morrison, who disappeared under mysterious circumstances last Saturday, is still being sought by the police.

It is reported that Morrison was seen by a friend at the bootblack stand near Sixteenth street and the corner of the alley. "I'm going to be it," Morrison is alleged to have said to his companion. The police found that the man had not purchased a ticket for any interior city or for the East.

BOY AND GIRL MISSING.

The police have been asked to find Joe and Queenie Pacheco, aged 15 and 7 years, who are reported missing by their parents. The brother and sister left their home in Hayward and were seen to take the car at San Lorenzo. They told friends they were going to Mill Valley. The two were last seen Monday.

ASK POLICE TO SEARCH.

The police of the bay cities have been asked to search for a young man, Harry Bolce, 28 years of age, who has been missing from his home, 25 Montell street, in this city since Saturday. Mrs. Mary Bolce, mother of the missing man, fears that her son has met with foul play or with some accident. Bolce was manager of a Truckee hotel and came to Oakland last week. After visiting his home he went to the business district, according to his mother, and no trace has been seen of him since.

WOMAN DISAPPEARS.

FRUITVALE, Aug. 28.—The disappearance of Miss Frances C. Everett, aged 60 years, living at Beulah and Mark streets, was reported today to the Oakland and San Francisco police. It is feared by her relatives that Mrs. Everett may have been overcome by ill health and is wandering the streets in a confused state of mind. The woman is said to have been subject to hallucinations. Mrs. Everett left her home early yesterday morning, saying she would take a short walk.

TRACED TO SAN FRANCISCO.

HAYWARD, Aug. 28.—Leaving their home, three miles from this place, Joseph and Queen Pacheco, children of J. E. Pacheco, a wealthy rancher of this section, told police today that they had seen their missing sister, who had been reported missing from Hayward, at the home of their mother, Mrs. Pacheco, in San Francisco. On being told of their plans Mrs. Pacheco went to that place but failed to find any trace of her children and the Oakland and San Francisco authorities have been notified of the discovery. The boy is 15 and the girl 17 years old. They left home on August 26. Through advice of detectives Joseph has been traced to San Lorenzo, thence to Oakland and from there to San Francisco, where his last trace has been lost of him. From the fact that the boy was alone when seen in Oakland it is believed that he has left his sister, who disappeared after she was seen to board a car in Hayward and is missing the authorities. The parents of the runaways are greatly concerned over the disappearance of their children and a reward will be offered for any knowledge leading to their whereabouts.

NEW MANAGER FOR GIRARD PIANO CO.

George H. Berman, the vice-president and general manager of the recently reorganized Girard Piano Company, has arrived in Oakland and assumed his new duties. Berman has had a wide experience in the piano and furniture business and is a well-known figure in the local business community. He has been connected in the past with several of the leading piano companies in the United States and has been successful in his management of the Girard Piano Company.

Precedent Is Shown in Action of Powers During Boxer Rebellion in China

Wang Pao to Peking. And of course American troops have been freely employed in the maintenance of peace in Cuba. It is true that in such of these cases there was special warrant by treaty for the employment of American soldiers, but State Department officials feel that a like obligation has been imposed upon the United States by the action which terminated the Zelayan rebellion. Aside from any question of treaty authorization the administration is said to be satisfied of its rights under the principles of international law to employ army and navy and navy of the United States for the protection of American interests, life and property in a foreign country where the defect government is either unable or unwilling to extend protection. Officials contend that such landing of American armed forces does not constitute war in any sense, there being no purpose of territorial aggression, punitive purpose or permanent occupation.

It is declared that while there are few precedents for employing regular troops in landing expeditions that it is accounted for by the far greater mobility and availability of marines and bluejackets.

WITHOUT OFFICIAL SANCTION.

Although the course of the United States in landing military forces on foreign soil without express approval of Congress is now under investigation by a special Senate committee named at the instigation of Senator Bacon, who has vigorously opposed sending troops outside the United States, the State Department takes the position that it is supported by the precedent in China and Central America, but is also bound by the so-called Washington convention to protect property rights of foreigners and further to see that administration is changed only by a fair and free expression by the people.

INVITES SEVEN MAYORS TO WATER CONFERENCE

Mott Takes Initiative for the Creation of Inter-Municipal District

Invitations were issued by Mayor Frank K. Mott today to the mayors of seven cities adjoining Oakland for a conference meeting to be held in his chambers in the Oakland City Hall tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock to start the proceedings for the creation of an inter-municipal water district. Petitions describing the proposed water district have been prepared and if the seven mayors agree will be handed out tomorrow afternoon to be circulated in the seven cities.

The petitions to be circulated will call upon the Alameda county board of supervisors to call an election to determine whether a metropolitan water district shall be formed. Providing the mayors agree that these petitions shall go out, the board of supervisors will be asked to include in the county budget funds for two elections, as a special election will be necessary for the creation of the district and a second for the election of a board of directors to have control of the business of the incorporated district.

The seven cities invited to co-operate in the water district are Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Piedmont, Emeryville, Albany and San Leandro. The mayors of these cities will go over the plans worked out by Consulting Engineer J. H. Dockweiler and the Oakland water supply commission composed of Ben H. Pendleton, George W. Dornin and W. T. Velth.

The meeting tomorrow will be one of the most important yet held by the mayoral conference committee. Everything is in readiness for the representation of the petitioners of the mayors will agree as to the method of putting these into the field for signatures. Ten percent of the electorate is necessary to call the election.

FATALLY HURT IN CRASH WITH AUTO

Mt. Eden Contractor Injured in Collision With Machine.

HAYWARD, Aug. 28.—George Christensen, a contractor of Mount Eden, was probably fatally injured yesterday when he collided with an automobile driven by A. Kilgore on Castro street. Christensen was riding a motorcycle at the time of the accident and was run down as he turned the corner into the county road. He was rushed to the Hayward Hospital and was placed in the care of Drs. W. A. Clark and Soren Nielson.

This Wise Burglar Learns Combination

Grocer's Safe Tapped by Thief Who Understood Secret Figures.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—A burglar who showed every evidence of being a familiar with the premises succeeded in opening the safe in the grocery of Arnold De Hay, 3189 Sixteenth street, early this morning. A hatchet and a piece of gasoline were used in tearing out a screen door, and the safe was opened by means of the combination. The sum of $76.35 was taken from it, but nothing else was disturbed. Officers Fitzpatrick and McDermott, who investigated, believe with De Hay that it must have been some one known to the grocer, who, in some manner, learned the combination of his strong box.

Disabled Gunboat's Fate Still a Mystery

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 28.—A message from the stranded ship, the gunboat, San Lorenzo, near Magdalena Bay, this morning, announced that the disabled gunboat, which was reported missing, had been found. The original message announced that the gunboat was in trouble and was picked up by the steamer Stanley and towed to a safe harbor. A second message announced that the gunboat had arrived at Magdalena Bay, and that the ship's crew, including Fitzpatrick and McDermott, were being taken care of. The message also stated that the gunboat was in a bad state of repair and that it was necessary to take it to a safe harbor. The gunboat was found by the steamer Stanley and towed to a safe harbor. The gunboat was in a bad state of repair and that it was necessary to take it to a safe harbor.

STREETS ARE UNDER 8 FEET OF WATER

Residents of Norwich, England, Driven From Homes by Floods.

Heavy Rains Deluge the United Kingdom; Drinking Water Famine Feared.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—Rain, which has been deluging the United Kingdom almost constantly since the beginning of the month, has ceased in most parts of the country and the outlook generally is fairer. The plight of Norwich, however, has become worse, the rapid rise of the Wensue having compelled hundreds of inhabitants to seek refuge in the higher parts of the city where they temporarily are being accommodated in the schools. Locomotion in the lower sections of the city is entirely by boat. Many streets are under eight feet of water. Two bridges and several cottages have been swept away.

A telephone message from Norwich late last night stated it is estimated that 7000 people have been driven from their homes by the floods. The water has risen in some parts of the city to thirteen feet. Police in boats, provided with ladders, are constantly patrolling the flooded district for rescue work. The authorities are doing their best to provide mattresses and food for the homeless.

TORCHES LIGHT STREETS.

The streets present a weird appearance, the only lights being those of torches and candles. Fears of a famine of drinking water are held as the machinery in the water works is flooded and useless. Queen Mother Alexandra and Prince George of Greece, on board a royal yacht, are storm-bound in Southwold bay on the Suffolk coast. The yacht, which is attended by the cruiser Liverpool, does not dare venture across the North sea.

A storm, having drifted returning to Lowestoft was caught in Monday's hurricane and has not been seen since. It is feared the vessel foundered with all hands.

Agnews Patients to Wear Uniforms

Hospital Inmates, With Dummy Guns, Are to Have Maneuvers.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 28.—Brass buttons on bright uniforms of the army, uniforms of officers, men with gold braid and distinguishing stripes of rank will be worn by the volunteer army at the Agnews State Hospital for the Insane. One hundred of these uniforms of the obsolete kind formerly used in the army and in the national guard were sent to the asylum today by order of the adjutant general. At Agnews the management has interested the inmates in military problems. Companies have been organized. They have had dummy guns and dummy field pieces constructed and these patients play at the game of war, have sham battles, charges and attacks and go through all kinds of military maneuvers.

Mystery in Visit of Six Italian Warships

BEIRUT, Syria, Aug. 28.—A squadron of six Italian warships anchored off this port this morning. Their object is unknown. The city is well fortified by the Turkish garrison and all is quiet. The populations of the coast towns show signs of nervous tension, fearing a repetition of the bombardment of last February, when 60 non-combatants were killed and many wounded. The city of Beirut by the Italian fire. At that time a number of old Turkish cruisers and gunboats were sunk while lying at anchor in the port.

JOHNSON GREETED BY PROGRESSIVE LEADERS

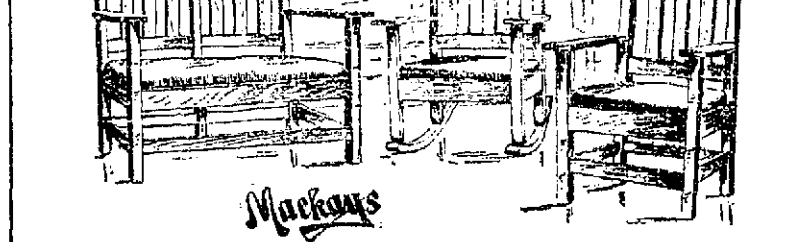

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 28.—Arriving here at noon, Governor William W. INJURED LINEMAN IS STILL ALIVE

Surgeons Marvel at Vitality of Man Terribly Burned by Power Cables.

Cal Miller, the Southern Pacific lineman who was nearly electrocuted yesterday while working on a high tension power line in the railroad yards near the estuary, has remained comatose since he was injured. Surgeons at the Receiving Hospital, where he is being held, marvel at his vitality. Owing to the proximity of the jugular vein to the charred gash across the side of the victim's head it has been deemed advisable not to move him. Fears that the vein walls have been impaired with the terrific shock that smote Miller are held by Dr. O. D. Hamlin and Dr. W. H. Irwin. Close watch of the patient, was kept all night by Miss McManis, the Receiving Hospital nurse for the bursting of the vein would instantly cause a flow of blood that might result in death within a few moments. With the exception of short periods of sleep the patient is still conscious and able to talk. Miller lives at 3940 Angelo street with his family.

Dayton Morgan, who was working with Miller on the tower and who received burns upon his hands and feet when he attempted to rescue Miller from the wire, is now being rapidly improving at the Southern Pacific Hospital.

Miller was removed to the Southern Pacific Hospital in San Francisco this afternoon under the direction of Dr. C. T. Devine, who accompanied him.

Villages Razed By Fierce Tornado

Tops Torn From Box Cars in Wisconsin Railway Yards

SHELL LAKE, Wis., Aug. 28.—Last night's storm raged over northwestern Wisconsin wrecked buildings in many villages and damaged farm property heavily. In the railway yards here the tops were blown from box cars and the roof of a flouring mill was torn away.

POWELL IN LINE TO HEAD CONGRESS

Transmississippi Body in Session, Discusses National Problems.

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 23.—There was material for argument in the opening of the second day's session of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress. These, with others upon which there is likely to be no difference of opinion, were delivered to the committee on resolutions.

A demand that products of farm and ranch be given the same measure of protection as is accorded to other products of the United States, was contained in the opening of Colonel Froy of Texas, who declared that the farmers and ranchmen had been blamed unjustly for the high cost of living.

The first rap at the forestry policy of the interior department was given in a resolution introduced by Henry Welsh, Utah, who said that the mining development of the West was being retarded by the department regulations.

POWELL VERSUS BRADY.

Proposed amendments to the by-laws of the congress were read by John L. Powell, chairman of the executive committee, and they were made a special order of business for tomorrow morning. Mr. Powell's only formidable opponent for the presidency of the congress is former Governor James H. Brady of Idaho, whose friends are very active.

The wisdom and propriety of "seeing America first" is being impressed on the delegates to the congress at a Great Salt Lake report this afternoon by F. W. Graham of Seattle, who read an address prepared by Louis W. Hill of the Great Northern railroad, J. W. Kelly of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad and others.

Hill's speech read in part: "I'd like to see Congress wake up to the patriotic necessity of advertising the scenic beauties and natural wonders that are scattered throughout Uncle Sam's domain. What's the matter with beginning by reproducing pictures of these wonders upon postage stamps?"

SLOGAN SUCCESSFUL.

"There is an innate patriotism in the American that is impulsively responsive to all timely appeals. The latest and most striking proof has come from the 'See America First' slogan, which this year has started the greatest march of tourists ever seen upon the sunset side of the great Mississippi valley."

"We concentrated on the appeal 'See America First.' The result was that fully one-half as many tourists went to Glacier Park in the second year of its existence as visited Yellowstone, the oldest park in Uncle Sam's group."

WOULD GET RID OF RED FLAG

Club Wants Stars and Stripes Substituted at Polling Places.

Substitution of the stars and stripes for the red flag used at election times to mark out the polling places as a means of inculcating patriotism was recommended to the City Council this morning by a communication from the Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber was formerly a member of the City Council.

The letter which follows was referred to the city attorney's office for an opinion, as the red flag provided at election times is designated in the state election laws:

"Hon. Board of Commissioners: Gentlemen.—At our last regular meeting resolutions were passed that the Chamber of Commerce, with your honorable body and through you to endeavor to have the red flag used upon election occasions changed, and instead of the same that the American flag be used."

"We remain truly yours,
"GENE STACHLER,
"E. CHIEFHOLOM, Secretary."

I. W. W. TROUBLE THREATENS AGAIN

Complaints Issued Against the Gang Which Planned Killing.

Two of Seven Men Arrested Prominent in Free Speech Campaign.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23.—Assistant United States Attorney Dudley W. Robinson has issued complaints against the seven men captured by the San Diego police near El Cajon last Thursday with a large quantity of arms, ammunition and dynamite bombs.

The arrest of the seven men was the result of the confession of Ed Rooney, one of the gang, who was arrested a short distance from the spot where the other six were captured. Rooney told the police that he left because the other men planned acts of violence in which several including Chief of Police J. K. Wilson, were to be killed.

The six men are Pete Shea and A. Johnson, two men said to have been prominent in the recent I. W. W. free speech campaign in San Diego. Robert Rae, Leonard Rand Sam Rosenberg and H. Gortley. Eight rifles, several carbines, six two-inch pieces of pipe with caps and places for fuse and 800 rounds of ammunition were found.

The matter will be taken before the grand jury, according to a statement issued by Assistant United States Attorney Robinson, to determine whether the I. W. W. probe by the federal authorities will be resumed.

TAXI RUNS AMUCK AND INJURES THREE

Broken Steering Gear Sends Machine Crashing Into Plateglass Front.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23.—The breaking of the steering gear on a taxicab of the Woodlawn Automobile Company, driven by E. M. McLaughlin, caused the injury of three persons and the demolishing of the front of the premises of J. Charles Green & Co., advertisers, 278 Valencia street, at 12 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. C. T. Moody, owner of a Market street restaurant and residing at 457 Ellis street, who was on her way home in the machine, was the most seriously hurt. She received possible internal injuries, contusions of the face, a badly lacerated scalp, bruises of the body and severe shock. The others injured were A. Wynn and his brother, A. J. Wynn, both of 501 Capp street. The former received abrasions of the face and the latter possible internal injuries and multiple wounds of the entire body.

MAY NOT RECOVER.

The condition of Mrs. Moody and A. J. Wynn is such that it is not certain whether they will recover. McLaughlin escaped with a few minor cuts and refused treatment at the Central Emergency hospital, where the others were taken in a machine driven by W. A. McGran. The automobile, carrying Mrs. Moody, was stopped by the Wynns, who are employees of the corporation yard of the fire department and who were anxious to hurry to a three-alarm blaze at Masonic avenue and Hayes street. They desired to be taken to the hospital and Mrs. Moody consented to accommodate them. McLaughlin was told to put on full speed and the machine shot down Valencia street at a fifty-mile clip.

STEERING GEAR BREAKS.

Just about Fourteenth street something went wrong with the steering apparatus. McLaughlin tried to control the car, but was unsuccessful. The machine swerved from side to side and finally, having lost none of its momentum, smashed up against the building, the show windows of the structure and the glass sides of the taxi crashing into splinters and cutting the three occupants, who were caught in the wreckage.

Several police officers were on the scene in a few moments.

ADMITS KILLING FIANCEE'S MOTHER

Strangled Woman When She Objected to His Steadfast Attentions.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Aug. 23.—Confronted here today by his sweetheart, Miss Lillian Henry, a woman named 23 years, confessed to strangling the girl's mother, Mrs. Nannie Henry, to death and stealing $10 from his victim.

Henry, McCleary told the police, objected to his attentions to her daughter and warned him to stay away from the house. Recently Mrs. Henry sent her daughter to Washington to visit relatives.

On August 15 McCleary demanded the return of his daughter. When she refused, he waited until night, when he returned and threatened his demand. Again refused he choked the woman to death and hiding the address in the house started for Washington where he was arrested on suspicion.

Until he was confronted today by Miss Henry, McCleary had denied all knowledge of the crime. He is a member of a prominent Hagerstown family.

NEW INTERSTATE ORDER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has issued an order that all interstate carriers must file with it a statement of their rates and conditions of service.

BIG GRAFT IN SOCIAL EVIL

Blackmail Obtained From a Dozen Houses in New York City.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Searchers along the trail of police blackmail that led up to the murder of the gambler Harry in Bowery last evening, found a trail for which blackmail was obtained from a dozen houses in this city, each of which paid from $100 to $200 a month for police protection. The houses were exclusively furnished. Only the proprietor and a few servants lived in them. Callers were shown a list of the names of girls who it is believed were called upon for protection. When wanted opposite the names of these girls were their ages, which ranged from 15 to 18 years.

The results of the district attorney's investigation will be expected produce a sensation.

Assistant District Attorney Rubin related a message today from Postmaster Frederick D. Johnson of Hot Springs, Ark., who took Schepps into custody stating that he had under arrest three women whose description generally fits that sent out for "Gyp the Blood" and "Lifty Lewis" by the New York police.

Lieutenant Becker created a bit of excitement in the corridors of the post office today while taking his exercise by heaping vituperation on the head of James D. Hallen, a convicted lawyer who had told the district attorney that he had overheard a conversation in the prison between Becker and Policeman White.

"You are a liar," shouted Becker, when he accosted the lawyer.

Hallen turned away and said nothing.

FEAR EXPOSURE

Commissioner Rhinelander Waldo fulfilled his threat last evening and permitted the reporters to copy a long list of owners of property which has been used by gamblers, raided by police and for the continued conduct of gambling in which premises he blames the listed "respectable people."

An indignant protest comes from Congressman Jefferson N. Levy who denounces the inclusion of his name as scandalous and unfair. He sets forth how he tried several times to dispossess the objectionable tenant of 558 Seventh avenue, but in the courts found himself "bombarded by technicalities and delays and a waste of money."

A church concern is one of the listed backsliders, other names are those of William Winter and J. Edgar Leary. The sailors' snug harbor is another. Most of the owners are Jewish, Hebrews and Italians, people who denounce gambling and graft and who will be horrified when they read their names in cold type among the "blacklisted."

Among the names of the owners are the Lorillard estate that of the Lorillard family of millionaire tobacco and cigar makers and J. Edgar Leary, a prominent Methodist church and missionary work. The William Astor estate appears in the list as the owner of two alleged gambling houses in West Forty-third street, which were raided in August and September of last year.

A steady effort was made this afternoon, it is said, to block the issuing and publication of the list. It was suggested that Waldo should not reveal it, but turn it over to Whitman for use at the "John Doe" inquiry before Judge Goff. Waldo smiled when this suggestion was made to him, but made no comment.

BROKER REPENTS WASTED CHECKS

Charmer Got $5000 in Notes and Then Ejected Realty Dealer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23.—Gustave Ehrlich, a real estate man with Morrell & Co., 109 Market street, today obtained a restraining order to prevent Maud Irene Cooper from disposing of notes to the value of $5000, which he claims to have given her.

Ehrlich makes affidavit that he met Mrs. Cooper at the Edison cafe, two weeks ago. On Sunday, following an amiable conversation, he went to her room at the Glenwood apartments, Clay and Polk streets, where she told him that her husband had not contributed to her support and he offered to aid her financially. He asserts that she persuaded him to give her three notes bearing interest at 6 per cent. One for $1000 maturing in nine months, and a third $2000 maturing in twelve months immediately after he had signed the notes according to the story, he was told to leave. He demurred, whereupon, he says, Mrs. Cooper went to the door and whooped and a tall man appeared who ejected him and threw him down stairs. This was in the early hours of Monday morning. Judge Sturtevant issued a restraining order and a citation for the woman to appear on Friday and give the history of the notes. The deputy who served the summons upon her found her fearful, and she was even more excited when she was subpoenaed to appear in the office of Attorney Strubel, tomorrow morning, at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Cooper was a constant attendant at the trial of R. Timothy the chauffeur, who shot J. J. Moore, the San Mateo millionaire, and was believed to be a friend of his. She says her husband is in the automobile business here.

CITY TO DECORATE FOR LABOR DAY

Flags and Bunting Will Greet Monster Parade of 18,000 Workers.

On the request of the Building Trades Council the city council this morning authorized the decoration of the city for Labor Day. A large flag and bunting will be placed on the city hall and the city will be decorated with flags and bunting.

Boom Conditions Prevail in Oakland on the New Southern Pacific Line Through

From S. F. Examiner August 23

CAR LINE CREATES NEW CONDITIONS

S. P. Electric to Havenscourt Is Making New Business District

The district east of Fruitvale avenue in Oakland, which is traversed by the new Southern Pacific electric line, is giving evidence of remarkable industrial activity. It seems indeed to be about to experience the same rapid advance that marked the penetration of rapid transit lines into the north part of Oakland and Berkeley. Formerly but one Southern Pacific line run southeasterly from the center of Oakland. This line runs from Fruitvale avenue on the edge of the marsh lands and does not sufficiently serve the great area of residence districts to the north, nearer the foothills.

The new Southern Pacific electric line, on the contrary, runs eastward from East Fourteenth street and Forty-sixth avenue parallel with the Foothill boulevard and thence keeps along close to the foothills in a very fine residence section as far as San Leandro.

This line is about one mile distant, and practically parallel to East Fourteenth street. Along East Fourteenth street there are many business establishments, but none at all along the route of the new electric line. That business centers will spring up in the vicinity of the stations along this line is apparently the opinion of shrewd business men, as there has been what amounts to a rush to get well located sites close to the new stations.

The track is now laid from East Fourteenth street to the center of Havenscourt, and for several hundred yards past Havenscourt station. Havenscourt appears to be the center of activity in this district on account of the new line, but property to the east for a mile is also actively in demand.

The new Southern Pacific electric line not only provides swift and efficient service to San Francisco, but gives access to the center of Oakland for a five cent fare.

HAVENSCOURT

Since last Spring we have sold five times as many lots in Havenscourt as any other firm selling Oakland property.

Why?

Because this new S. P. line has opened up the WARMEST, SUNNIEST, most LIVABLE part of Oakland, and shrewd investors recognize that here is the place to make money.

Business Property

Business property around Havenscourt station, right in the CIVIC CENTER, is going to become very valuable. Some of it will unquestionably double and treble in value in a short time. There is no other business center within ONE MILE of Havenscourt station.

HAVENSCOURT

Is a home place beautiful. HAVENSCOURT is restricted to attractive bungalows, except in the Civic Center. HAVENSCOURT has 21 miles of splendid macadamized avenues and concrete walks. HAVENSCOURT has a park of its own and an S. P. station. HAVENSCOURT has miles of sewers and water mains. HAVENSCOURT has two schools adjoining.

Beautiful Sites as low $500, $50 and $5 a Month

No Interest or Taxes Till 1914

How to Get There

There are two pleasant offices on our Havenscourt property. Go out any day. You will always find someone there. Though the S. P. tracks are laid right to Havenscourt station, the system is not yet organized, so from Oakland better take the E. 14th Street cars right to Havenscourt Boulevard. From San Francisco, take the S. P. Melrose train to Melrose Station, and the E. 14th St. cars a few blocks eastward.

A New Newspaper

There is now a weekly newspaper at Havenscourt called Havenscourt News. Send us your name and we will put you on the free list so you can keep in touch with this wonderful "city within a city"—Havenscourt.

FICKERT USES HIS FISTS ON REPORTER

Husky Prosecutor Breaks Law Himself When Quizzed in Interview.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23.—While the grand jury was busily engaged investigating the case of a white slave case last night District Attorney Fickert, who was not present in the meeting room, was having an altercation across the corridor with a newspaperman, which resulted in his being struck by Fickert. It is claimed, had declared that the case was being investigated was a proper matter for civil suit and was being interviewed on that subject when the trouble began.

"I don't mind being roasted myself," he told the reporter, "You can take a fall out of me any time you want to, as far as I am concerned, but I don't like the notoriety on account of my wife and children."

His interviewer made a reply to which the prosecutor apparently did not approve. Fickert, who was formerly a Stanford athlete, and far outweighs the newspaperman, attacked the latter. His fist shot out and the reporter went to the mat. Blood was soon streaming from a bad cut on the reporter's forehead. The grand jury found no evidence of irregularities with reference to Attorney Woodworth.

EASTERN STAR TO WELCOME MATRON

State Head of Order Will Be Guest of Honor at Big Reception.

The members of the Order of the Eastern Star of Alameda county will tender a complimentary reception and ball to Mrs. Lena W. Stannard, worthy grand matron of the order for the State of California, at the Scottish Rite Cathedral, Thursday evening.

As grand matron of the order, Mrs. Stannard has devoted several months to promoting the work in the bay cities and districts. Arrangements have been made for the closing function of her year in office.

The order has grown wonderfully in the last few years and there are at present fourteen chapters in Alameda county, the presiding officers of which are acting as a general committee in the arrangement of the affair.

Mr. Gilman W. Bacon is chairman of the reception committee, and P. J. Bradloff, chairman of the floor committee. L. W. Potter, chairman of the music committee, has secured the services of Aah-mee band for the occasion.

The reception is to be limited to members of the order, but as all the members through the officers of the various chapters, the occasion will be a notable one.

TO HOLD MEETING IN INTEREST OF LOW FARE

HAYWARD, Aug. 23.—A mass meeting will be held in the town hall tomorrow night to consider ways and means of having the fare on the Oakland Traction company's line reduced between here and Oakland from 20 cents to 10 cents. The meeting was called by Thomas B. Russell, chairman of a special committee appointed by the Hayward Chamber of Commerce to secure signatures to petitions asking the company to make the reduction.

UNCLE SAM TO FURNISH "HONEYMOON LODGE"

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 23.—New life is to be breathed into the walls of old Fort Point which was constructed at the entrance of San Francisco in 1853.

Colonel I. P. Wisner, commander of the military post has considered the state of affairs at Fort Winfield Scott where there are a number of married couples in the government employ. Their family quarters lie in the new concrete barracks in the hillside are compelled to occupy the shattered shacks in the post.

TO DISCUSS AUTOS IN THE YOSEMITE

Park Superintendents to Meet
There in October and Discuss Change.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Whether automobiles should be allowed in the national parks of the country will be a question of discussion at this year's conference of park superintendents, to be held in Yosemite National Park, in October.

Hundreds of requests reach the interior department yearly asking permission to take automobiles into national parks and bills granting such rights have been introduced into Congress. All the requests have been denied because of the danger to other travel, the answer being given that it is hardly safe to have an automobile meet a six-team stage on a thousand-foot precipice. Secretary of the Interior Fisher has expressed the opinion that the time will come when some concessions must be granted to automobilists.

OIL STEAMER FLEET HAS BEEN DIVIDED

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The fleet of steamers owned by the Standard Oil Company has been divided into two parts, following the dissolution of the company. By the arrangement effected the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey has taken over the foreign carrying trade and the coastwise vessels go to the Standard Oil Company of New York. The latter company also takes the lighterage business.

Both companies already have begun a great enlargement of their fleets. The New Jersey company has 22 ships under way in foreign shipyards and the New York company has ordered 14 ships and barges, to cost approximately $6,000,000, as well as 14 wooden boats, which will be used in New York harbor.

AGED RECLUSE DIES, LEAVING BIG FORTUNE

JERSEY CITY, Aug. 28.—Former neighbors of Michael Kiley, an aged recluse who occupied a ramshackle house on Bright street here for many years, were surprised to learn today that the old man had died, possessed of a fortune which the appraisers estimate at $200,000.

Of this total $65,000 goes to Mrs. Margaret Jones, who took care of Kiley in his last illness. A big share of the residue goes to Mrs. Catherine Daly, a niece.

COLORADO VOTERS TO HEAR CANDIDATES

Big Political Rally Is Called for Thursday Evening in Hamilton Hall.

A political rally will be held Thursday evening at Hamilton auditorium, Thirteenth and Jefferson streets, under the auspices of the Colorado American Center of the California Civic League.

The president of the organization, Miss Anna Virginia Simmons, will preside at the meeting. The following candidates are expected to address the meeting:

Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, Republican candidate for re-election Sixth congressional district; John F. Mullins, incumbent supervisor Fifth Supervisorial District; P. W. Foss, incumbent supervisor Fourth Supervisorial District.

FRANTIC HUSBAND LOOKS FOR HIS MISSING WIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—Taking with her two and a half-year-old baby girl, Mrs. L. W. Langis is missing from the Sherman Hotel, Eleventh and Mission streets, and her husband, a mechanic, has appealed to the police to find her. Whether or not the couple had a disagreement could not be learned from Langis' sister, who resides at 631 Alameda street, and who gave such information as she could regarding the disappearance. Langis himself is away hunting for his loved ones and is almost in despair. The couple met at the hotel Sunday night, Langis leaving for his temporary residence on Illinois street at 10:30 o'clock. When he returned the next morning he could find no trace of his wife and child.

Mrs. Langis is 22 years old and 5 feet 6 inches tall. This is the only description given of her by the husband who was so excited that he could scarcely report the case to the complaint department.

RUNAWAY BOYS IN POLICE HANDS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—In search of adventure and excitement, Worber Duby, aged 17, of 420 Solano avenue, Los Angeles, and George Miller, also 17 years old, of New Point Creek, Oregon, left their respective homes and met by chance in this city. Finding themselves without funds last night and with most of the romance and thrill of their escapade lacking, they climbed into a vacant building on Howard street, near Embarcadero, to sleep. There they were found by a policeman early this morning and sent to the Detention Home. An effort will be made to communicate with their parents.

LIONS TO LESSEN SOUND OF WEDDING BELLS WITH ROAR

G. W. LOEWENSTEIN AND MISS RUTH KAVANAUGH, WHO WILL BE MARRIED IN CAGE OF ANIMALS AT IDORA.

When the wedding bells peal at Idora Park on Friday night to the accompaniment of the lions' roar, the growls of the leopards and jaguars and the vicious puma's snarling, it will form the most unique and startling setting that has ever been witnessed. Never in the history of Idora has an event caused so much comment as the approaching wedding in the cage of wild animals.

During the next two days hundreds have applied in person, by letter and over the phone to reserve seats for the occasion. All money has been refunded. The management announces that it is to be but an extra feature of the free vaudeville and no seats will be reserved. First come, first served, will be the rule on Friday, the same as on other days.

Much speculation is in the air as to what course will be pursued by Miss May Clark, the young lady who wrote the pathetic note asking the Idora management to procure her a husband. This morning Manager York of Idora announced that Miss Clark had not decided as to who she would wed.

COUPLE READY.

"We already have a San Francisco couple, George Loewenstein and Miss Ruth Kavanaugh, who promise to be on hand," said Manager York. "They are to come to Oakland this afternoon to procure the marriage license. I have told Miss Clark that if she can make up her mind by Friday night we will hold a wedding."

However, Miss Clark is in a predicament. By 8 o'clock this morning she had received all told 124 proposals of marriage. They came from every part of the State, one from Portland, two from Salt Lake City and one from Denver, these by telegraph. Thirty-

LOS ANGELES TO USE MEAL AND BED TICKETS

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 28.—The Bathing Institution of this city, which is devoted to charitable work, has evolved a scheme by which it will be aided in helping the unfortunate and at the same time insure persons asked in the streets for alms. The institution has issued "bed and meal tickets" which are given to the poor and which are then presented to the institution for redemption in the form of a meal and a bed for the night.

A Tin of Instant Postum

makes about fifty cups of a delicious beverage tasting much like the mild, rich, high-grade Javas of the Orient (so hard to buy at any price nowadays).

This royal flavored food-drink not only saves money in these days of the high cost of living, but is preferred by many former coffee drinkers because of its pleasing taste and freedom from the coffee drug, "caffeine."

Instant Postum Requires No Boiling.

It is regular Postum in concentrated form—nothing added.

It is made by stirring a level teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and adding cream and sugar to taste. Housewives appreciate that because it saves time, work and fuss in the preparation of a meal.

Iced Postum—First, dissolve in hot water; then pour into glass or pitcher containing ice. Add lemon and sugar as desired.

Instant Postum is sold in tins containing sufficient to make about 100 cups at 50 cents. Smaller tins making about fifty cups cost 30 cents.

Coffee Averages About Double That Cost.

Ask your grocer about it. If he doesn't have Instant Postum, send his name and address and a 2-cent stamp to cover postage and we will send you a five-cent free sample of this new food-drink.

"There's a Reason" for POSTUM

MOTHER AND CHILD KILLED BY TRAIN

Buggy Is Struck at Crossing;
Husband Fatally
Injured.

WILLITS, Aug. 28.—Mrs. Edward Upp and her infant were instantly killed here tonight when the buggy in which they were riding was struck by a railroad train. Edward Upp was fatally injured. They were returning from a circus performance.

Mrs. Upp was the sister of H. B. Muir, a well known lumberman of this place. The Muir family included several of the pioneer settlers here.

She was also the sister of J. L. Muir of San Francisco, a real estate operator with offices at 912 Phelan building.

DYING MAN JESTS WITH WIFE IN HOSPITAL

STOCKTON, Aug. 28.—"Be good to mamma and put two lumps of sugar in her coffee every morning."

With both limbs severed at the hips, H. F. Broff, a Santa Fe brakeman, acknowledged his 3-year-old son last night as Broff lay dying on a cot in the emergency hospital.

While engaged in his duties last evening Broff fell between two flat cars. His legs were severed at the hips. He was rushed to the hospital. He asked the surgeons to allow him to see his wife, as he realized he had but a short time to live. He clutched with his wife, who was at his bedside with their one-month-old baby and little son. The physicians and nurses, who were in tears, pronounced him the greatest man they ever saw.

"Don't worry, my dear. I won't be troubled with coming any more," he said to his wife. Broff was 39 years old.

500 MEN WILL BE HOBO PICNIC GUESTS

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Five hundred men, who know no other home than the lodging house are to be given a free automobile ride and picnic at Riverside camp grounds on Labor Day by the Illinois Revere Mission.

This "hobo picnic" as it is called, is the idea of giving the men a day's outing and food and to induce them to listen to speakers who will tell them how to regain self-confidence and get on their feet again. John Stewart, superintendent of the mission, has been promoting the use of the automobile trucks owned by business houses.

DON'T NEGLECT CATARRH

Catarrh is a most distressing complaint, known by its symptoms of stuffy feeling in the head and nose, roaring in the ears, mucus in the throat, difficult breathing, etc. When the blood becomes thoroughly polluted with catarrhal matter the inflammation extends to the bronchial tubes, causing hoarseness and often an aggravating cough, the stomach is affected, resulting in dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and gradually all the mucous membranes of the body become diseased. Catarrh is beyond the reach of local treatment. Only temporary relief can be had from the use of sprays, washes, etc. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter and at the same time building up the entire system. Then as pure, nourishing blood circulates through the body, the inflamed membranes heal, all the poisons are cleared out and the system is restored to health.

Strobridge's Strong Claim for Re-election.

If any State Senator has made a better record in the matter of service for his district or for the best interests of the State at large than Senator Edward K. Strobridge of Castro Valley as the representative in the upper branch of the State Legislature of the Thirteenth Senatorial district during the past four years THE TRIBUNE is not aware of it. Practically it has been flawless. He made a similar record for himself during two terms he previously served his constituents in the Assembly, in return for which he was accorded the support of the joint Republican and Union Labor vote in the district for State Senator in 1908. His supporters for both legislative positions were neighbors, friends and acquaintances who had known him from boyhood and had faith in his integrity, judgment and intelligence.

During the whole of his legislative career Senator Strobridge has been strictly a representative of the people, not of any interest. Principle has been the prime factor controlling his official actions. Whether in the Assembly or in the Senate he was always relied upon to line up in the support of every measure that promised to benefit the people. His vote was always conscientiously cast in their interest and in their interest only. His constituents had implicit faith in him. They have the same faith in him today. They know where to find him whenever a measure is before the legislature affecting them or the people of the State at large.

Senator Strobridge has always been an exponent of progressive ideas. He has been found invariably in the front rank of the supporters of progressive measures. He is a candidate for re-election on that record. The adoption of the primary law, which has taken nominations for public office out of the hands of the political bosses and placed it in the hands of the people, was his special hobby as a legislator. No member of the State Legislature made a more strenuous fight in its favor than he did. He was one of its most earnest and energetic advocates in the organized State-wide campaign of education which resulted in its final adoption.

Every reform measure relating to the regulation of railroads, the election laws, criminal procedure in the State courts, the conduct of business in public offices and the correction of abuses in the State printing office and other departments of the State service, received his unqualified support. He has given his district and the State the best service which intelligence and experience could give, and he rests his candidacy for re-election to the Senate from the Thirteenth Senatorial district on that record, with the fullest confidence that he will be returned at the primaries with a substantial majority as a popular endorsement of his legislative actions. No public representative ever established a stronger claim for re-election than Senator Strobridge has done through the faithfulness with which he has performed his duty to his constituents.

San Francisco and Oakland's Waterfront.

Intentionally or unintentionally, the San Francisco Chronicle conveys the impression that Oakland's waterfront was ceded to the city in recent years. The cession took place nearly half a century ago, and was thought so little of at the time that the waterfront was traded off illegally for a small schoolhouse.

Recently the city has cleared away the cloud on its title and removed the obstacles to improvement set up by the claim of private ownership which was strengthened by a tideland patent issued in violation of law.

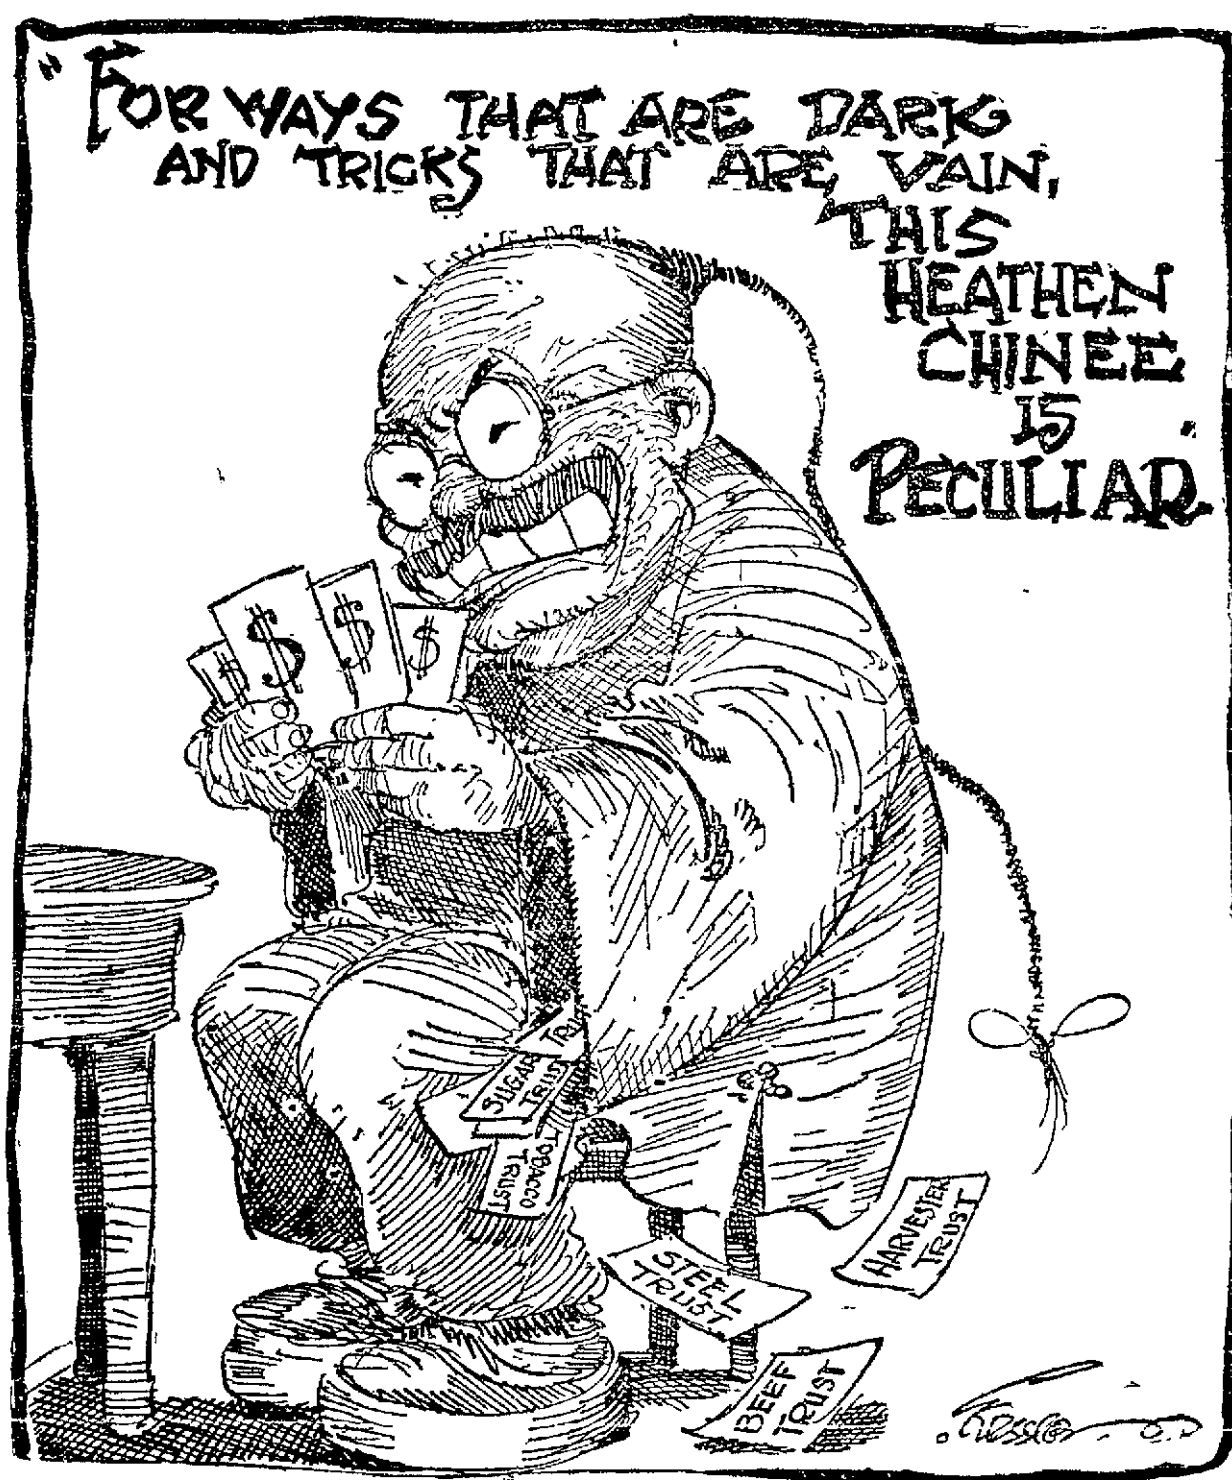

It is true that the Legislature recently granted Oakland a strip of water frontage on the Brooklyn Basin to complete its ownership of all the waterfront within the city's limits, but the State conveyed to the city its title to the really valuable section of the waterfront more than two generations ago. When that cession was made Oakland was a mere village, and the waterfront was a vast expanse of mud flats. All the improvements made since have been made by the city or by its lessees and assigns. The State has not expended a dollar to provide Oakland with shipping facilities.

Oakland people would have no objection to the State ceding the waterfront of San Francisco to that city if San Francisco would let Oakland and Oakland's waterfront alone. The growing importance of Oakland's waterfront has caused San Francisco to cast covetous eyes on it, and to seek control of it by annexing this city. San Francisco would like to check waterfront development on this side of the bay, fearing a diversion of traffic, and hence she is scheming to annex all the strategic points on the bay while asking the State to cede her own waterfront to the municipality.

San Francisco treated Oakland with contempt till this city regained control of its waterfront and began to improve it for the accommodation of large shipping. Then she began the siren song of consolidation, the object being to get control of our commercial facilities and put a stop to their development or use in a way that would be detrimental to San Francisco's interests. Yet while trying to seize our waterfront San Francisco asks us to help get possession of her own. We are willing to help provided she will let us alone.

Knowland and His Enemies.

If any elector in Alameda county desires to help Representative Sims get the free toll provision of the Panama canal bill re-enacted he can do so by voting against Joseph R. Knowland next Tuesday. If there is any person deludes himself with the notion that he can promote the interests of the people and the cause of progress by aiding the Pacific Mail Steamship Company and the transcontinental railroads to defeat Joe Knowland, he ought to have his head examined. He is unable to see straight and think straight. In this fight Mr. Knowland stands for the unrestricted control of the Panama canal by the American people, and his defeat would be a blow to that principle given in the house of its friends. If the voters want free tolls for American ships and to aid in restoring the American merchant marine to its ancient place on the ocean, they will re-elect Knowland by an overwhelming majority and put to flight the mouthing pretenders who are seeking to defeat Knowland by vague professions of solicitude for progress. Knowland stands for the American principle, for the interests of the American people, and the enemies of the American people should vote for the enemies he has made.

The New Mutual Admiration Society.

Having made itself the organ of Jack Cook, it is in accord with the eternal fitness of things that the Enquirer should take on Judge Frick as a contributing editor and allow him to use its columns to make his defense of Cook.

Judge Frick's talents as a criminal lawyer are very properly employed in defending Cook, and his literary genius has found an appropriate and congenial vehicle of expression in the editorial columns of the Enquirer.

In times past the Enquirer has so often printed its opinion of Judge Frick and Jack Cook that it would be malodorous to comment on an association that is so highly honorable to all three.

Misery loves company and all three are in such hard luck and in such evil repute that companionship in misfortune has created a bond of sympathy which only the cruel and unfeeling would care to break.

Still Jack Cook's moral leprosy cannot be cloaked by the Enquirer's frayed and tattered and bedraggled reputation, which is so well established that whenever it yells, "Stop thief!" the passers-by turn and exclaim: "What have you priggled now, you rascal, that you are trying to distract attention from your own felony by bawling at the heels of somebody else?"

However congenial the association of Judge Frick, Jack Cook and the Enquirer may be in combination as a whole, the separate parts retain their individual juiciness and fragrance, reminding one of Coleridge's couplet on the City of Cologne, in which he said he counted nine distinct stinks and a thousand smells.

The River Rhine, as is well known, doth wash the city of Cologne.

But tell me, pray, what power divine shall wash the River Rhine?

Nevertheless, each member of the outfit can console himself with the reflection that the other fellows are in a more wretched plight than himself.

The citizens and taxpayers of Alameda county can do themselves no poorer service than to vote for Jack Cook's candidates for Supervisor. It is needless to say that Supervisor Mullins, Foss and Murphy are not Jack Cook's candidates. They are not his candidates because they are honest, independent men who have proved faithful to the people. Because they are faithful to the people, Cook is trying to defeat them with men who will do his bidding.

RETURN OF THE PIRATE

A low, rakish craft has been glimpsed, dauntless courage of dare-devil buccany the cottagers along the shores of Lake Ontario. Investigation makes it almost certain that it is a pirate ship. Let us hope that it is true. It has been so long since the bold marauders of the sea were sighted that even the rising generation had begun to fear that the race had been lost forever.

lakes awakens the old-time thrill and breaks the dull monotony of a workaday world. The more mature and classic mind turns lovingly to old Lumbro, that sea attorney of the Cretaceous, who won an immortality of fame as a mild-mannered man that ever sought ship or cut a throat, and shares the pity that He loved adventures like a variety. He was so great a loss to good society. But it was La Fite and St. Honoré, man and that price of them all, Captain Kidd, roving the Caribbean and ravaging the Spanish main, whose exploits continue to stir the adventurist's blood of youth as nothing else can save the dulcet prospect of going west to Ag. In the old days, when the sea was a land of mystery and the unknown was a land of mystery, the sea was a land of mystery and the unknown was a land of mystery.

THE OLD BLIND MAN

Down our little one-street town, His dog an' him—I see 'em yit— His cane a-tappin' up an' down An' heart a-keepin' time with it: A-noddin' here an' smilin' there, An' speakin' gibberish o' conifers, Yet blind's a stone, an' I declare He didn't seem to mind a bit.

He took for granted that the sky Was blue like what it orter be— Says: "Perhaps it ain't, but I Prefer t' think it is," says he: By faith he killeded that all things went Precisely like the Maker meant. An' consequence, he got content That heaps o' folks don't git who see

He held that all the world below Was perfect as a world kin be, He preferred t' think it so, An' believed it too, it seemed t' me: It never seemed his heart repined, One time again it struck my mind I swan, that we's the ones that blind An' he's the only one could see! —Buffalo News.

BACHELOR MUSINGS

We hunt for our successes, our failures find us. Reforming a man is a lot harder than marring him to do it. It is the girl cut walking with a man that has to stop to kiss and hug every body she meets. The most exciting thing to a girl about a flirtation is she might get in earnest any minute. A man never knows how to appreciate a woman and a woman how not to. A man can think he's doing to take a woman to the theater if she's away for a week.

The Election Outlook in Vermont.

Next Tuesday, September 3, State elections will be held in Vermont and Maine. The result will be awaited by politicians throughout the country with much interest because it is expected to disclose the trend of public sentiment in New England. If the Democrats poll their normal vote the showing will be favorable to Wilson, as anything like a division of the Republican vote between Taft and Roosevelt will enable the Democrats to carry States that are normally Republican if the third-party movement does not cut into the Democratic vote to any appreciable extent. Only a heavy defection from the Democratic ranks can make Roosevelt's candidacy formidable.

In Vermont, the Democratic candidate for Governor claims to have a chance of being elected because of the split in the Republican ranks. However, the Taft people only allow the Roosevelt candidate a total of from 6000 to 8000 votes in the State. He will have to poll at least double that number to endanger the success of the Republican nominee, who is a successful business man of high character and irreproachable standing.

But the Democrats concede the Roosevelt candidate from 12,000 to 15,000 votes, and claim accessions to their candidate from the ranks of both the Republican factions. They say many Roosevelt men will vote for the Democratic nominee because they realize their own candidate cannot win and will help the Democrats in the belief that a defeat for the Republican ticket will help Roosevelt in other States. Also, that some of the regular Republicans will vote the Democratic ticket as a protest against the way the affairs of the Republican party have been managed in recent years.

But all these calculations are dictated by hopes rather than sound reasons. There is a good deal of bluffing of course. Roosevelt's supporters insist that they will carry the State, but the general impression is that the claim is an empty one, although they confidently assert that a considerable body of Democrats will vote the Roosevelt ticket. The indications are that the Republican ticket will be elected by a plurality vote—for the first time in the history of Vermont. The division of the vote between the three candidates, however, is the chief matter of interest. It is expected to reveal, to some extent, the relative strength of Taft and Roosevelt and to show whether or not the Democratic vote is holding together.

CANADA MAY SEE FEMININE WAR

Premier Turns Down Militant Suffragettes Despite Their Threats.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The Canadian Premier, Robert L. Borden, when he faced the suffragettes for the first time, today, told them emphatically he had no power to introduce a general measure of suffrage for women in the Dominion of Canada, and that no threats of employing militant methods would have any influence on him.

The delegation of the Women's Social and Political Union was introduced by Miss Barratt. She stated that their chief object was to ask the Canadian Premier if he intended on his return to the dominion to introduce a government measure for the enfranchisement of women. She declared that the Women's Social and Political Union was considering a campaign to advise intending immigrants to go to Australia and New Zealand rather than to Canada.

On Mr. Borden's reply, she said, would depend the advice the Women's Social and Political Union would give its Canadian members, and also the possibility of a militant agitation in Canada. Mr. Borden was very explicit in stating that he had no power and no intention of introducing into the Dominion Parliament a measure for the enfranchisement of women. The question of the franchise, he said, devolved entirely on the nine provincial legislatures, and the Dominion Parliament had no warrant to pass such legislation.

Mr. Borden concluded: "I should like to say, with all respect, I think the Canadian women are capable of judging for themselves in this matter. No suggestion of the employment of the methods of any kind will have the slightest influence."

Mr. Borden, later in the day, received a deputation of members of the anti-suffrage league, which congratulated him upon holding his ground against the Women's Social and Political Union. Mr. Borden said he had no complaint to make against the presentation of the case of the Women's Social and Political Union, except the suggestion implying a threat of the intention into Canada of militant tactics.

NEWSPAPERMEN LOST IN KLAMATH SWAMP

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Aug. 28.—Lost for two days, without food, in a network of swamps, islands strewn with high tule, was the experience of Mahlon T. Dolman and Rossier L. Mikel, new editor and advertising manager of the Klamath Falls Northwestern. Exhausted, they reached Worden, 14 miles from here, today.

The men left here on Sunday morning in a launch to visit the lower end of Klamath Lake. Soon after losing their way in the maze of tule islands, the engine of their boat became disabled. All day yesterday they paddled about the lake, hoping to be sighted by a searcher. After their second night in the open launch they came upon a swampy peninsula and, abandoning the boat, tramped through an almost impenetrable morass to the mainland.

TO APPOINT SPECIAL EXAMINING BOARDS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Scarcity of officers in the marine corps has led the navy department to appoint special examining boards to investigate and pass upon candidates for second lieutenant. It is announced that these boards would sit in Washington and, if the applications justified it, also at San Francisco, on October 2.

ANNA HAD NO MARRIAGE, BUT INSISTS UPON DIVORCE

ANNA HELD, THE ACTRESS, WHO ADMITTED THAT SHE JUST "AGREED" TO LIVE WITH ZIEGFELD.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—It was learned that when Miss Anna Held appeared before Edward G. Whitaker as referee in the suit for divorce against Florence Ziegfeld she testified that no ceremony had been performed on the occasion of their marriage at the Hotel Netherlands, March 28, 1898. Miss Held testified that she had just come from Paris, and that in the presence of other persons she and Ziegfeld accepted each other as husband and wife. The referee accordingly found that the marriage was legal.

The misconduct upon which the referee refused the decree occurred at the Hotel Ansonia, April 1, 1910, with a woman named; in April, 1911, on a railway train in Nevada with Miss D. E. Jacques, a member of Ziegfeld's company producing "The Follies of 1910."

CONSOLIDATION IS MERCHANTS' MARK

Grabbing Policy of San Francisco to Be Fought by Exchange.

That the annexation of Oakland and other east bay shore cities by San Francisco would be a great calamity was the sense of a meeting of the directors of the Oakland Merchants' Exchange last night. The meeting was called to order by a special committee appointed some time ago to confer with other civic bodies of Oakland regarding the policy of San Francisco.

In the discussion of the danger to Oakland the point was brought out that the case of the passage of the constitutional amendment allowing cities to annex territory across county lines, San Francisco would be the only community in the state benefiting because of her greater population. This, it was declared, would be special legislation and unconstitutional. It was plainly shown that other cities in California not having the population of San Francisco would not enjoy the privileges given by the proposed amendment.

TO FIGHT SCHEMES

The body pledged itself to fight the annexation movement. Wilbur Walker, secretary of the exchange, being instructed to notify civic organizations of the stance taken, the following resolutions were drawn up:

Resolved, by the board of directors of the Merchants' Exchange of Oakland, that we are opposed to the proposed constitutional amendment which would permit the annexation of county boundaries in the consolidation of cities, as we believe that such a policy would create strife, bitterness and confusion in municipal conditions around the San Francisco bay and would diminish four of the richest counties in the state to build up one city and county.

Such a policy, if successful, would revolutionize political conditions in California, and would permit the two largest cities to control legislation to the detriment of the remainder of the state.

We believe that proposed legislation would be a serious injury to the entire state of California, and we urge the people of the state to vote against the proposed constitutional amendment.

PAY CLAIM OF U. S. CONTRACTOR

HYATT MAKES RULING ON EASTERN TEACHERS

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 28.—A ruling has been handed down by Superintendent Hyatt of the state school department in the effect that a teacher having a certificate from an unaccredited normal in the east is not entitled to a California certificate notwithstanding the fact that he has secured a local certificate in any county.

OAKLAND TO BE TAPPED BY STATE HIGHWAY ROUTE

Road to Connect Valley and Bay; Six Contracts Ordered Let

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 28.—Contracts amounting to $275,755 for 56 miles of roadway to be constructed under the $18,000,000 highway bond issue in Madera, Fresno, Stanislaus, Merced and San Diego counties, were ordered today by the State highway commission and the successful bidders at a meeting of the State engineering advisory board held yesterday in the Governor's office.

The advisory board also approved the plans and specifications, and where these have been entered into the contracts for work in the State institutions, amount to approximately $300,000.

The commission has indicated that the route it will select for the State highway connecting the San Joaquin valley with the bay will run from San Joaquin county line through the towns of Lodi, more and Hayward to the Oakland city line.

The road contracts ordered let are as follows:

In Madera county, an asphaltic oil road from the Fresno county line to a point one mile south of Calista, a distance of 0.8 miles, the job going to the Worwick Street Paving company of Fresno, whose bid was $31,834.

In Madera county, an asphaltic oil road from the Fresno county line to a point one mile south of Calista, a distance of 0.8 miles, the job going to the Worwick Street Paving company of Fresno, whose bid was $45,567.

In Merced county, an asphaltic oil road from the Stanislaus county line to Arena, a distance of 3.6 miles, the job going to the Worwick Street Paving company of Fresno, whose bid was $50,343.

In Fresno county, an asphaltic oil road from the Stanislaus county line to a point one mile south of Calista, a distance of 0.8 miles, the job going to the Worwick Street Paving company of Fresno, whose bid was $42,285.

In Stanislaus county, an asphaltic oil road from the south boundary line of the county to a point one mile north of Ceres, the job going to E. O. Burge of Sacramento, whose bid was $57,322.

SOUTHERN ROAD.

In San Diego county, an asphaltic oil road from San Diego to Encinitas, a distance of 8.6 miles, the job going to the Worwick Street Paving company of Fresno, whose bid was $49,484.

The first five of these strips of road are in route 4, the main highway from San Francisco to Los Angeles via the San Joaquin valley. The last, in San Diego county, is in route 2, the main highway from San Francisco to Los Angeles via the Coast Range.

In an opinion handed down yesterday by the State highway commission, the new highway is to be built in accordance with the powers of the State highway commission to select routes for the proposed highways. At present, the commission is not authorized to contemplate that the main highway shall touch the county seats through which they pass.

MANY ANGLES TO NEW MAIL ORDER

Sunday Regulation Explained by Postmaster-General Hitchcock.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Striving to check the flood of protests against the new regulation of the delivery of mail on any special delivery mail on Sunday, even to holders of postoffice boxes, Postmaster-General Hitchcock has issued this explanation:

"Mail received up to midnight on Saturday for lock boxes will be distributed and will be available on Sunday as usual."

"There is at present no street delivery on Sunday and therefore the law makes no changes in this regard. In short, the only mail that will be affected under a reasonable construction of the new law is that received at the post offices on Sunday and hitherto sorted on that day for distribution to lock boxes."

"As the purpose of the law, which was clearly enacted in the interest of the employees, is to reduce as far as practicable the amount of Sunday labor, the work of distributing Sunday mail to lock boxes will be limited to certain classes of mail that cannot be held until Monday morning without a serious inconvenience to the addressees."

"This mail will include that for newspapers and for hotel guests. The latter is peculiarly transient in character and is of such a nature that it is impracticable to have their employees sort out in emergency cases on Sunday letters of special importance."

"This provision does not require the closing of postoffice on Sunday which will be quite impossible, owing to the fact that the transit mail has to be sorted and also the mail collected in cities for dispatch for other destinations."

"We do not stop to consider the inconvenience to the public of the closing of the whole system of mail transportation and consequent inconvenience to the public."

STANFORD'S PRESIDENT BLAMES MARS FOR RACIAL DEFICIENCIES AND TROUBLES

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 28.—David Starr Jordan, president of Stanford University, discussed "The Cause Against War" before the delegates to the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress.

He declared that the greatest loss to a nation from war was not "the unremitting blood," but those who might have been, but never were."

Mr. Jordan said in part:

"The aim of the peace movement is to do its part 'to keep unreasoning anger out of the councils of the world.' The absence of unreasoning anger between nations is the beginning of peace. But our ideal of peace is not to be 'bankruptcy armed to the teeth,' the state of Europe today."

"International peace means mutual respect and mutual trust, a condition in which the boundary line between states is not one of suspicion and hate, but, like the boundaries of provinces, a convenience in judicial and administrative adjustments."

"Such a boundary as this is found in the four-thousand-mile line which separates Canada from the United States."

"Almost the whole story of the rise of the cost of living is told in the story of the rise of taxes for war debt and war armament. The whole receipts, earned and unearned, of all the people of the United States, by far the richest nation on earth, barely suffice to pay the bill for war expenses of the world, for the year. The rich men of the world can no longer find gain in war. They want no more of it."

"The biggest portion of the address was devoted to the support of the assertion that war took the best blood of any country, her young and fearless men and that only cowards remained, and from their blood came forward new generations who hold the history of the nation in their grasp."

"The speaker blamed the deterioration of the European race."

"Where is the country square of English life and English history? Where are his rosy-cheeked and strong-limbed daughters? Where, indeed, is the typical John Bull of the time-honored cartoon? Why is it that three out of four European millions of Englishmen are unable to earn a decent living of any thing at all in England today?"

TREND NOW DOWNWARD.

"Why is it that these same unemployed are and unemployable in Canada, in Australia, or wherever they may go? Why is it that the tendency in all the average physical standards is downward, while the standards of the best are always growing higher? The answer lies in the reversed selection of war."

"Civil effects are found in England and everywhere else where strength and courage have been rewarded by glory and distinction. England has exchanged her country squires for the memorial tablet."

"More than for all who have fallen in battle or were slain in the name of a brave man that should have been descendants of her strong and manly men. We may personally the spirit of the nation, England should most grieve, not over her unreturning brave, but over those who might have been but never were, those who so long as history lasts can never be."

U. S. COMMISSIONER AT EUREKA RESIGNS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—Henry L. Ford, United States Commissioner at Eureka, resigned today.

Following Ford's resignation, United States District Judge De Haven yesterday appointed T. R. Rolfe, State Senator from Humboldt county, to the post vacated by Ford.

Ford's resignation followed an investigation conducted into his office by M. C. Matson, examiner of the Department of Justice.

The investigation of Ford's resignation followed the arrest of people in Humboldt county on the charge of selling liquor to Indians.

MERCHANT BACK FROM EAST

Local Man Lauds Oakland as Compared With Eastern Cities.

Mr. E. L. Ormsby, manager of Friedman's Cloak and Suit Company, has just returned from a fall buying trip through the East.

Mr. Ormsby visited most of the large cities, including Philadelphia, Chicago, Boston, and New York; also many of the New England towns. One noticeable feature of most of these smaller towns was their utter lack of progressiveness as compared with the wonderful advance Oakland is making. There is really nothing in these cities to make it worth while for people to stay in the East. As a consequence, there are numbers of families making an effort to come West to locate, principally in California cities.

"California and Oakland are decidedly on the map," says Mr. Ormsby. "The Panama Canal and the Fair are occupying the minds of people all through the East."

ARBITRATION BETTER THAN WAR: LAURIER

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 28.—Pointing to the fact that for more than 100 years differences between Canada and the United States had been settled without resort to arms, Sir Wilfrid Laurier declared last night that arbitration was better than the most successful war. He spoke at a dinner in visiting British financiers and legislators.

"In England," he said, "they think of armaments and war, in Canada we think of peace and railways and public work."

Of the Panama Canal question, Sir Wilfrid said he believed British, Canadian and American diplomacies would bring about an agreement satisfactory to all.

BERKELEY AND ALAMEDA

TOWN AND COUNTRY TO FORM BUREAU

Municipal Research Committee Is Planned by City Club of Berkeley.

BERKELEY, Aug. 28.—A bureau of municipal research under the joint auspices of the city administration, the University of California and the City Club of Berkeley has been launched. The latter organization, the first of its kind in the state, is a group of municipal officials at Berkeley. The plan will be laid at once before the city officials and President Benjamin Wilson of the university, whose cooperation is confidently expected. Co-operation between university and community has for some time been a cherished plan of the City Club and the University of California. The plan is to have a permanent bureau of municipal research and efficiency here. It was pointed out by several speakers that the great lack of American municipalities is that of reliable and dependable information on civic questions. The bureau is intended to meet this need and to help apply business methods to city affairs. A report upon the feasibility of the bureau and the resources available for it will be made to the City Club at its next meeting, Tuesday, September 17, at Unity Hall. The chief subject of discussion at this meeting will be the formal reports of the committee on food supply and on drugs and medicine. It is hoped that definite steps toward the organization of the bureau may be achieved prior to the assembly here of the delegates to the convention of California municipalities, which will be held at Berkeley next month. It is expected the plan will arouse much discussion and comment at that time.

MORAGA RANCH IS SOLD AT ADVANCE

The Big Tract Changes Hands Again; Increase of $250,000 in Price.

MARTINEZ, Aug. 28.—The Moraga ranch of 13,000 acres, near Lafayette, has been sold by A. H. Harper, who purchased the tract from John W. Carpenter for $1,000,000, to B. Shapiro, R. M. Downer and John E. Dequet at an increase of $250,000. The deal will be closed some time this week, and the great tract will be subdivided and sold in one block. Harper secured the tract after bidding against a coalition of millionaire real estate men of the bay cities.

MARSHAL APPOINTED STREET SUPERINTENDENT

SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 28.—Joseph Portillo, city marshal and ex-officio tax collector, has been appointed superintendent of streets by the board of city trustees on motion of Justice Coleman. The creation of the office of street superintendent is to further the street improvement campaign being carried on by the board and for which it is proposed to include an appropriation in a bond which it is probable will be held within the next session. A groundmaster is to be appointed at the next meeting of the board, the spread of tables having caused many complaints on the part of residents at the numerous stray dogs mauling the streets.

VENERABLE CLERGYMAN AND WIFE ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

REV. AND MRS. JOHN GASMANN OF ALAMEDA, WHO CELEBRATED THEIR FIFTY-FIRST WEDDING ANNIVERSARY THIS WEEK.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 28.—The Rev. and Mrs. John Gasmann celebrated their fifty-first wedding anniversary this week. The celebration was confined to an informal observance of the anniversary, including calls made by many old friends of the couple at the Gasmann home, 1101 Park avenue. A few doors to the north, 1117 Park avenue, Bishop and Mrs. E. P. Hart celebrated a few days ago, their 52d wedding anniversary. That August is a notable wedding anniversary month in Alameda is still further shown by the fact that Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Decker of 2520 Santa Clara avenue celebrated this month their 51st wedding anniversary.

Rev. Gasmann is a retired pioneer California Episcopal clergyman. He had charge of Episcopal work at Columbia Hills, Sonoma, San Andreas and other early day mining camps during the heyday of the early gold boom. He was also stationed at Sonoma. He was ordained an Episcopal clergyman at the Napa Valley Episcopal Theological school in Wisconsin in 1880. Bishop Kemper conferring the title of ordination. A year later Gasmann came to California and worked in the State under the direction of the late Bishop Kip. He and Mrs. Gasmann were married in Chicago in August, 1861, after Gasmann had returned east from California. At the urgent call of Bishop Clarkson, who wished Gasmann to take up Episcopal church work in the West.

WAS INDIAN AGENT

During General Grant's tenure as President Gasmann was made Indian agent of the Yakutat Sioux in Dakota. He served many years in this work, being reappointed Indian agent by President Garfield and assigned to the Brule Sioux reservation in Nebraska. He was in charge of the rudiments of agriculture, home building and the domestic arts. He was largely instrumental in retaining for the Indians their tribal lands when a concerted move was made by whites to have the government dispossess the Indians of their holdings. A little over a year ago the venerable divine was in an auto accident at Ross, Marin county, in which the Rev. Cecil Marrack was killed and the Rev. Mr. Carroll seriously injured. Rev. Gasmann, despite his years, escaped without hurt. He and Mrs. Gasmann are still in splendid health.

DECKERS ALSO CELEBRATE

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Decker, who celebrated their 51st wedding anniversary this month, are 82 and 77 years of age, respectively, and are still hale and active. They were married at Frankfort, Kentucky, August, 1851. Decker served in the British fleet and at which time he wrote the national air, which was retained on board a British warship to prevent him and his friend, Dr. Beane, from giving advance notice to the American forces of the forthcoming bombardment. British officers dining at Dr. Beane's home on the night preceding the attack, drank heavily from the doctor's libations and feared that they might be betrayed to the bombardment. To prevent this, Dr. Beane and his friend, Dr. Beane, were taken to a British ship and kept there until the attack was over. Dr. Beane was released after the attack was over.

GEORGE THEOBALD CALLED BY DEATH

Well Known Business Man and Famed as Enthusiastic Cricketer. ALAMEDA, Aug. 28.—George Theobald, prominent insurance man and veteran cricketer, is dead at his home, 1518 Park street. He passed away after an illness of several months, although he had been in failing health for some time previous to his last sickness. Theobald was the husband of Martha C. Theobald and father of Mrs. Edwin M. Gile of 1028 Park street. Miss Alice Theobald and Lieutenant R. A. Theobald of the United States battleship Nebraska, now at Boston. He was a native of England, 56 years of age. Theobald was proud of the country of his adoption. He was for twenty-four years the cashier of the San Francisco office of the London, Liverpool and Globe Insurance company, one of the largest insurance concerns in the world. He held the position until illness forced him to leave work. Theobald was an expert and enthusiastic cricket player and had much to do with making the English national game popular in the bay cities. For many years he was affiliated with clubs that played on the Webster street field. Theobald's family moved to Alameda a year ago, having been in the city since the death of his wife. The funeral of the insurance man will be held Friday morning from his late residence. The interment will be in Mountain View cemetery, Oakland.

ASSESSMENT HIGH, SAYS CAR COMPANY

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 28.—Keeping its records in shape for action in the courts the Pullman Car Company has prepared today before the State Board of Equalization with a protest against the Panama-Pacific Exposition tax assessment made by the Board several weeks ago. The assessment of $3,670,634 this year as against $2,995,760 last year is excessive. City Assessor George E. Gross of Oakland will appear before the board late this afternoon to explain some of the reasons for the increase. The board is a commission, franchise assessment that the state pays into the cities and counties what is known as refund taxes.

WOULD HAVE BEEN PLACED ON CURVE

Coroner's Jury in Whittington Inquiry Recommends That Signal Be Provided.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 28.—The coroner's jury in the Whittington tragedy exonerated the train crew at the inquest held this morning at the Alameda branch morgue by Coroner C. L. Tisdale. The jury recommended that a warning bell be placed at the southwest corner of Sherman street and Etnel avenue, at the curve where several accidents have happened since the local lines were made into the electric loop. It was at this point that Milton Whittington was struck by a train. Several months ago W. S. the coroner's jury was injured. The witnesses at the hearing today were Grant Whittington, son of the victim of the tragedy; Beverly Theobald, Motorman Dan Quill, Conductor F. W. Joyce and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hartley. It was shown that the brakeman who was on the train was not on the train when the accident occurred. The testimony of the motorman who was on the train was that he saw the danger of striking Whittington. The testimony of the motorman was backed up by Mr. and Mrs. Hartley who were on a motorcycle and who were watching the approaching train. They also saw Whittington crossing Etnel avenue. A couple of steps either forward or backward would have left him safe, but he apparently paid no heed to the approaching train. Both Hartley and Mrs. Hartley noticed the light of the approaching train and heard the whistle and saw Whittington crossing Etnel avenue. Whittington was struck by the train and killed. The jury recommended that a warning bell be placed at the southwest corner of Sherman street and Etnel avenue, at the curve where several accidents have happened since the local lines were made into the electric loop.

HOME OF MINISTER VISITED BY THIEF

Rev. C. L. Mears Loses Timepiece Presented to Him by Reno Parishioners.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 28.—Burglars seem to have a special fondness for the home of Rev. C. L. Mears at 2015 Central avenue. Last night the house was entered by thieves and $200 worth of silverware and other articles were taken. About 3 o'clock this morning a second visit by a burglar was made and the divine's gold watch and loose change in his trousers' pocket were taken. The burglar was a handsome timepiece of solid gold presented to the minister by his Reno parishioners. CARPENTER-PASTOR RESIGNS; SALARY MUCH TOO LOW

REV. A. Y. SKEE.

BERKELEY, Aug. 28.—Finding it impossible to live on the salary of $400 a year paid him by the West Berkeley Methodist Church, Rev. A. Y. Skee has resigned its pastorate held by him for the past three years. To take over a living Rev. Skee has found it necessary to conduct a contracting and carpentering business besides preaching. In his resignation he declares that the church needs a man who can devote his whole time to its charge, but that the present pastor finds it impossible to do so on the salary paid.

California Professor Makes Important Discovery in Ontario Rocks

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Aug. 28.—Bodily in the rocks of western Ontario, Professor Andrew C. Lawson has discovered what is believed to be the earliest form of man's life yet known to science. The fossil remains, similar to the sponge of today, outdate the pre-Cambrian fauna of Alaska, though they can only roughly compute the real period of their origin. It is believed by Professor Lawson that the fossils lived in shallow water in the prehistoric time when the American continent was shaping. The accumulating structures, closely related to animal life, fringed in reefs the shores. These reefs, now inland rocks and ranges, held still the rock-remains of life of perhaps millions of years ago. The fossils are shaped like cones. Specimens of the fossils were submitted to Charles D. Walcott, the eminent paleontologist in charge of the Smithsonian Institution. The fossils were found in the rocks of western Ontario, Canada. POSTMASTER ACCUSED

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—E. R. Cavanaugh, the postmaster at Edgewood, was taken into custody by officials from the United States marshal's office today and charged with the theft of $1000 from the post office. He was taken to the Siskiyou county jail and released on $1000 bonds.

OAKLAND AND SAN FRANCISCO

The people of the biggest bay city want to adopt Oakland. They are not to be blamed for trying to annex a good thing, but Oakland thinks it is big enough to take care of itself, and from the rapidity with which it is accumulating prosperity and inhabitants there is substantial reason for such a good opinion of itself. To steal a peep behind the future's curtain is to see Oakland gathering in the broad acres that surround that side of the bay and ultimately extending to Richmond, which is a pretty good little city all by itself. In 1920 there may be a city next to the biggest bay city, and it is hardly within the possibility of human events that some day Oakland will take San Francisco beneath her protecting wing.—Stockton Mail.

NEW PIPE ORGAN FOR ST. JOSEPH'S

Alameda Catholic Church Is Installing Fine Instrument in Choir Loft.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 28.—The long felt desire of the members of the congregation of St. Joseph's church to have an organ installed in the house of worship commensurate with its size and artistic beauty is about to be realized. A magnificent Estey two manual pipe organ valued at $2000 has been obtained and is being put in place in the choir loft under the supervision of representatives of the music house of Sherman, Clay & Co., through which the purchase of the instrument was made. The instrument is a fine example of the work of the Estey company and will be installed in the choir loft. DANCING BEAR ON FERRY GIVEN ROOM

Passengers Scatter When Performing Bruno Makes His Escape.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—Baby Bruno, an educated bear, five feet tall, owned by M. R. Lyons and consigned to San Francisco through the Wells Fargo company, brought about a mild panic yesterday on a ferryboat. Bruno had become attached to a big bull moose that was consigned to Sacramento from the Rocky Mountains. When the moose arrived at Richmond the bear had a strong objection, and broke from the cage with a roar of protest. Frank Sainsot, an animal tamer in charge of Bruno, coaxed the bear back into the cage, which was removed to a ferryboat. Bruno was a big bear, five feet tall, and was very tame. He was very tame and was very tame.

PRESIDENT WHEELER ADDRESSES GERMANS

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 28.—President Benjamin H. Wheeler of the University of California, and also member of the "Flying Legion," at present visiting this city, delivered a speech last evening in German in the German club of this city. One accident has marred the otherwise peaceful trip of the "Flying Legion." Dr. V. T. McIlvenny, a member of the party, was the unfortunate victim. Last Monday, while visiting a logging camp in the Sierrita mountains, he was struck between two logs and for the prompt action of a timberman would probably have been crushed to death.

MAY CALL ELECTION

BERKELEY, Aug. 28.—It has been unofficially decided by the city council to call a bond election immediately after the election of November 5, 1912, to raise funds for sewers. A comprehensive scheme of storm and outfall sewers was submitted by W. F. McPherson, state engineer, while a city commissioner of Berkeley. It is expected that the bond election will be held in the city. The bond election will be held in the city.

BERKELEY BELLE TELLS SECRET TO LUNCHEON GUESTS

MISS MARTHA M. DUKES.

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Martha Washington Dukes to Mr. Andrew Parker was made yesterday afternoon to the friends of Miss Dukes, who is particularly well known in musical and social circles in the bay cities. Miss Dukes is a daughter of Dr. H. C. Dukes, surgeon on the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia, and a sister of Dr. C. A. Dukes, well known in Oakland medical circles. The bride-to-be is a pupil of Professor S. Arlt and has taken part in a number of recitals of the San Francisco Musical club, of which she is a member. Mr. Parker is in business in San Francisco. No date has yet been set for the wedding, but it is probable that it will take place early in the year.

MEDICAL AID FOR COUNTY SCHOOLS

Merchants Start Movement for Inspection in Alameda Institutions. A movement to have a system of medical inspection instituted in the public schools of Alameda county was started last night by the Oakland Merchants' Exchange, following a report of the work done in the Oakland schools by Dr. N. K. Foster, special medical adviser to the Oakland Board of Education. A committee composed of Dr. N. K. Foster, H. N. Gard and T. Dorgan was appointed to take up the matter with the Board of Supervisors, and the report of other civic bodies will be secured. Dr. Foster told of the educational department work in following the theory of prominent medical experts, who declare that the backwardness of students is largely due to ill health or physical defects, and they recommended the system of having each scholar examined as to eyes, teeth and general health. It was also announced at the meeting that a special committee from the San Francisco Merchants' Exchange will visit the local schools on September 10 for the purpose of co-operating in the industrial welfare of both cities.

TIDE OF KNOWLAND SENTIMENT IS SWELLING

VICTOR METCALF IS TO PRESIDE

"Under the auspices of the Knowland Commercial League a meeting will be held at Maple Hall on Saturday evening, August 31. Hon. Victor H. Metcalf, former Secretary of the Navy under President Roosevelt, will preside. Among the other prominent speakers will be Mayor Frank K. Mott, W. E. Gibson, president of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. J. B. Hume.

KNOWLAND'S FRIENDS CAN HELP

All men and women who are desirous of assisting Congressman Knowland at the primary election on September 3 are requested to send in their names and addresses as follows: For Oakland, Knowland Headquarters at 927 Broadway; phone Lakeside 214 or Oakland 3143. For Berkeley, room 6, northwest corner of Shattuck and Alston ways; phone Berkeley 313. For Alameda, 1208 Lincoln Avenue, phone Alameda 3130. The use of machines for election day is particularly desired. KNOWLAND CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE.

EBELL RECEPTION SHOWS ENTHUSIASM OF WOMEN

Final Days of Campaign Brings Succession of Political Triumphs

Supporters of Congressman Joseph R. Knowland point to yesterday's big reception at the Ebell club as an indication of the popularity which Mr. Knowland enjoys in his home district and the confidence in his ability as a statesman to represent the community's varied interests.

Nearly five hundred women, representing the flower of society, as well as every social and civic club in the city, participated in the reception and set the seal of emphatic endorsement on Knowland's policies as expressed in a vigorous speech.

Mrs. Cora E. Jones, who presided, voiced the sentiments of the gathering when she introduced Congressman Knowland as "one who has worthily represented his home for eight years in the councils of the nation and is proving himself more capable every year."

Among those present were: Mrs. E. B. Driden, Miss Annie F. Brown, Mrs. E. B. Driden, Miss Alice Rasmussen, Mrs. L. Babbitt, Mrs. W. W. Standford, Mrs. G. L. Cunningham, Mrs. A. B. member's influence. Under our system of government the legislation of Congress is largely handled by committees. At each session there is a struggle to obtain important committee assignments. I now rank as No. 2 among the California delegation of the House. In point of continuous service, few members from the Pacific coast outrank me. No member has a better committee assignment. A new member must begin at the foot of the ladder and work his way up."

TALKS AT NEGRO MEETING. Congressman Knowland addressed the Afro-American League at a large gathering held at the colored Baptist church on Filbert between Seventh and Eleventh streets last evening. He looked much more enthusiastic by suggesting that it would be most fitting that at the coming Panama-Pacific Exposition the negro race should make some kind of an exhibit. "It would be of great educational value," declared Congressman Knowland, "and it would show the people of this country and the rest of the world what the negro race has done and is doing. It would be a great step forward for the race."

BIG RALLY FRIDAY. One of the biggest Knowland rallies of the campaign will be held Friday night in the auditorium of the Berkeley high school at which a number of prominent men and women of the college city will speak in addition to Knowland. Great activity is reported at the Knowland headquarters in Shattuck Avenue and the candidate will receive splendid support in that city.

Among the list of vice-presidents will be many of the most prominent men and women of Berkeley. Since Congressman Knowland has opened his campaign for re-election at the Berkeley primaries September 3 his friends in Berkeley have been especially active and have secured pledges from many voters to support Knowland.

mensurate appropriation in the House of Representatives to enforce the white slave traffic act of 1910 and of the fight he made for woman's suffrage fourteen years ago, when he was a member of the state assembly. He is one of the pioneers in the movement.

Knowland will be one of the leading figures tonight at the Elmhurst carnival, where he will deliver the speech. Later in the evening he will speak to the members of the Oakland Lodge of Moose at Moose Hall, Twelfth and Clay streets, when he will deliver a lecture on the Panama canal, illustrated with stereoscopic views. Knowland is a member of the organization and is extremely popular among the lodge-men.

SUPERVISORIAL STRUGGLE TOLD IN BLUNT LANGUAGE

Notorious "Courthouse Ring" in Desperate Effort to Regain Control

(FROM THE SAN FRANCISCO BULLETIN.)

OAKLAND, Aug. 27.—Alameda county "Courthouse ring," which lost its control of the machinery for graft when Supervisors Foss, Mullins and Murphy went into power and which turned a fighting minority into a controlling majority on the board, is making a desperate fight at this time to regain its lost power and prestige.

The helpless minority, chafing, but helpless, have seen to it that a candidate has been put into the field against all three of these Progressives who have, much to their chagrin, given Alameda county a straight business administration, free from political corruption and other kinds of corruption.

If they elect even one man in three, the old "ring" will be back in the saddle, for the minority will promptly become a majority. That is why it behooves every friend of good government and clean politics to return all three incumbents and keep the "ring" still under the heel.

Supervisor Foss was the first fighting Progressive to be elected to the board, coming from Berkeley with a reputation for honesty and clean-cut business methods. He had a lonesome fight until he found Supervisor Mullins fight to break away from his associates on the board. Even then these two found themselves unable to effect the reforms which cried to high heaven. Not until Supervisor Horner went into the Assessor's office, and Governor Johnson appointed Mullins to the board did the board really change its complexion. Since that happy day Alameda county's business has been conducted as the people wanted it.

Not so with the ward politicians, who, although impotent, have not gone to sleep. This primary election next Tuesday is their chance. They have put up a ticket against Foss, Mullins and Murphy and they haven't put up crooks. Dr. H. N. Rowell, opposing Mullins, is a prominent physician and clubman, some experience years ago in practical politics. Ray Kitchener, opposing Foss, is a printer. Stevens, who is opposing Murphy, is a capitalist.

All men with standing, true. But all three, on the face of them, the nominees of the old machine.

A vote for any one of them is a vote for the organization which once made Alameda county a notorious hotbed of corruption. Electing any one of them means a reversal in good government and a blow to reform.

It is not a question whether Rowell, Kitchener or Stevens are good men. It's what they represent—those puppets they will be if they go on the board.

The fighting is too bitter for anybody not to see it.

BAY SHORE CLUB'S KNOWLAND MEETING

ALAMEDA, Aug. 28.—The friends and supporters of Congressman Joseph R. Knowland will hold a meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in the Bay Shore club house at the south end of Ninth street. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the campaign and to elect a large vote for the re-nomination of the congressman on next Tuesday, primary election day.

A special invitation is extended by the committee in charge of the arrangements for the meeting in balla. Among the speakers who are billed to be heard are A. F. St. Sura, Dr. Charles L. Thadde and Max Horvinski. The latter is chairman of the arrangements committee and will officiate this evening as chairman.

BREAKS JAIL TO FEED HIS CATS

Then Miner Tramps 40 Miles Across Desert to Be With Pets.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Aug. 28.—The story of how a miner broke jail and tramped forty miles across the desert in order to feed his pet cats has just reached this city from Searchlight, Nev.

The miner was Joseph Watkins, imprisoned on the charge of having stolen a pair of lace curtains while in an alleged intoxicated condition. When placed in jail, he asked the jailer to see that his cats were fed. The jailer laughed, but Watkins was serious. He wanted the cats fed, and when the jailer would not attend to his pets, he decided to break jail and do it himself. He did so this night.

The Sheriff followed Watkins in an automobile the next day and took him into custody again just after he had given his pets a beautiful meal.

It was said the officers and others were so touched by Watkins' love for the cats that the charge against him probably would be dismissed.

POLICE BECOME NEWSPAPERMEN

Bluecoats to Publish a Real Journal; of Course in Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 28.—The Daily Bulletin, the official organ of the Los Angeles police department, will soon become a unique publication, if present plans mature.

While hardly more than a handbill at present, the police purpose to enlarge it to a four-page newspaper and to apply to postal authorities at Washington for its admittance to the mails as second-class matter.

It will be printed and edited entirely by members of the police department, and, it is said, will be the first newspaper in the world to be handled in every phase of publication by policemen.

SWIMMER DIES OF HEART FAILURE

SEATTLE, Aug. 28.—C. I. Wick, 23, with heart failure while swimming in the pool at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium about 10 o'clock last night and was dead when taken from the water less than a minute later. He was seen to dive, and when he did not come up George Howe, a fellow member of the association, plunged in after him. Medical aid was summoned, but death apparently had been instantaneous. His father, Martin Wick, 44, as a receipt for a diamond ring on which was written the name of Miss Ida Wick, a Seattle girl. It is said that he had been married within a few days.

High Commissioner of Canada Deplores Discussion of Canal Issue.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—Baron Strathcona, high commissioner for Canada, in an interview today regarding the Panama bill controversy, said he deprecated public discussion of the question, pending further developments. He declared, however, that if discriminating provisions in favor of American coastwise shipping came into operation, it would seriously hamper the over-sea trade of foreign nations.

WOMAN REFORMER TO ENTER COLLEGE

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Miss Virginia Brooks, reformer and settlement worker whose efforts to clear West Hammond of vice, have met with considerable success, has announced her intention of entering Indiana University next month. She will study sociology, economics, dramatic art and literature for a year. According to reports it has been a long time since the announcement that a certain student was going to enter the institution has created such interest at the university.

Awaiting her arrival at Bloomington, will be an invitation to become a member of the Strut and Fret Club, the university dramatic organization.

BURBANK'S Spineless Cactus

28 IMPROVED VARIETIES TO CHOOSE FROM.

The greatest fodder and fruit bearing crop in the world. It will produce 200 tons of fodder per acre, or 100 tons of fruit per acre. The fruit is delicious raw or made into jams, jellies, syrups, etc., and produces at less than one-tenth cost of other fruits. It usually sells at the same price as oranges. There can never be a crop failure.

DAIRYMEN AND CATTLEMEN, TAKE NOTICE

Burbank's Spineless Cactus is the richest food known in sodium, potassium and magnesium. The principal salts found in milk. These valuable organic salts are found in cactus more abundantly than in any other fodder. The fruit contains from 6 to 14 per cent sugar, besides a small amount of protein and fat, also aroma and flavor.

The following table shows the nutritive value of the spineless cactus, alfalfa hay and gamma, a typical range grass, according to analysis made by the University of Arizona agricultural experiment station.

Description—	Ash	Protein	Fiber	Nitro Free Extract	Ether
Cactus without fruit	1.01	4.42	10.22	81.42	1.52
Alfalfa	5.87	12.74	24.04	41.55	1.49
Gamma grass	1.11	6.49	20.11	47.89	1.04

The planting season of 1912 is now open. Order today. A limited number to each person.

There have been many impostors selling a so-called Burbank cactus, they are half spineless cactus and half alfalfa to cattle.

All shipments direct from Luther Burbank from his farm.

They cannot be bought anywhere else in the world. See samples. Prices as low as 40c each, 10, 25, 50, 100, 500, 1,000, 5,000, 10,000.
